

THE RT HON SPEAKER OF PARLIAMENT ALBAN BAGBIN CALLS ON THE REGENT OF BIMBILA

The parliament Rt Hon. Alban Bagbin led a parliamentary delegation to visit Bimbila regent Nyelinbolgu Naa Yakubu Andani Dasana

On Thursday, 14th December, 2023. The Rt Hon. Speaker Alban Bagbin, along with a parliamentary delegation, visited the palace of the Bimbila regent, Nyelinbolgu Naa Yakubu Andani Dasana. This visit is part of Ghana's 30 years of uninterrupted parliamentary democratic celebrations.

The aim of the visit was to strengthen the relationship between the parliament of Ghana and the traditional leadership in Bimbila. The Speaker Rt Hon. Bagbin expressed his gratitude to the regent for his warm reception and emphasized the importance of the collaboration between the two entities for the growth and development of the country.

During the meeting, the parliamentary delegation discussed various issues of mutual interest, including local governance, development projects, and the promotion of peace and security in the Nanung. The regent highlighted the challenges faced by Nanung and requested support from parliament to address these issues.

The Speaker Rt Hon. Bagbin reaffirmed the commitment of parliament to work closely with traditional leaders and local communities to ensure inclusive decision-making processes and sustainable development. He urged the regent and his council to continue engaging with the parliament on matters affecting Nanung to facilitate effective policy-making.

In his remarks, The Regent Nyelinbolgu Naa Yakubu Andani Dasana expressed his appreciation for the visit and expressed hope that such interactions would foster closer ties between parliament and traditional leaders across Ghana. He also commended the parliament for its efforts in promoting democracy and good governance over the past three decades.

The 30 years of uninterrupted parliamentary democracy celebration is an opportunity to reflect on Ghana's progress and achievements in democratic governance. The visit to Bimbila not only strengthened the relationship between parliament and traditional leadership but also emphasized the importance of inclusivity and cooperation in the nation's development.

The parliamentary delegation's visit to Nanung signifies the parliament's commitment to engaging with local communities and working collaboratively towards a more prosperous and inclusive Ghana.
